CFVI Community Outreach Update - COVID-19 Response

March 25, 2020

For Community Partners, Nonprofits and Small Businesses

SHARING COMMUNITY NEEDS AND RESOURCES

CFVI is actively conducting outreach to our nonprofit partners to better understand the needs and urgencies of the community. As a result, CFVI has created a public Google spreadsheet as a way for nonprofit entities, schools, social service organizations, and small businesses to share needs and resources with one another. To access the spreadsheet, click on the button below:

A NOTE TO CURRENT GRANTEES

We recognize that the current circumstances may impact our current grantees and funded projects. If you would like to discuss the terms of an existing grant and options for accommodating unexpected changes, please contact Beth Nuttall, CFVI's Executive Manager, at bethn@cfvi.net.

For the General Public & Volunteers

RESOURCES & INFORMATION

CFVI is compiling a list of resources for members of the community that will be continually updated as we receive information. To access the list, click here.

VOLUNTEER REMOTELY

Looking for something to do while self-isolating? Volunteer your skills from the comfort and safety of your own home and support nonprofits in the U.S. Virgin Islands through our partnership with Catchafire!

CONTACT US

Our office is currently closed until further notice and our staff is working remotely, so the best way to get in touch with us at this time is via email at general.info@cfvi.net. You can also visit our online staff directory for individual contact information.

About the Community Foundation of the Virgin Islands

Since 1990, the Community Foundation of the Virgin Islands (CFVI) has been a catalyst for positive change in the Territory through initiatives committed to youth, learning, family support and the environment. With a professional staff and a volunteer Board of Directors composed of community leaders, CFVI is a trusted advocate and supporter of programs that ensure opportunity and sustainability for current and future generations. CFVI is a registered non-profit organization entirely supported by individual donors, grants, trusts, corporate donations and estate planning. For more information, visit cfvi.net.
