CFVI Offering Grants for 2021 USVI Humanities Projects

Funding provided by the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH)

APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 30, 2021

U.S. Virgin Islands, April 20, 2021 — The Community Foundation of the Virgin Islands (CFVI) was awarded National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) funding to support humanities education, lifelong learning and public humanities programming in the territory.

Up to $200,000 is available to fund eligible entities. Grants range from $1,000 to $20,000 and are available to fund humanities programs, projects and initiatives such as book festivals, literacy campaigns, speaker's bureaus, teacher development, cultural tourism, humanities publications, films, exhibitions and projects that preserve and provide access to cultural and educational resources in the U.S. Virgin Islands.

Applications must be submitted by April 30. Applicants will be notified regarding decisions on or before May 30. For more information on grant requirements or to submit an application, visit cfvi.net.

Applicants with additional questions are encouraged to contact Anna Wheatley Scarbriel at annas@cfvi.net.

Since 1990, CFVI has been a catalyst for positive change in the Territory through initiatives committed to youth, learning, family support and the environment. With a professional staff and a volunteer Board of Directors composed of community leaders, CFVI is a trusted advocate and supporter of programs that ensure opportunity and sustainability for current and future generations. CFVI is a registered non-profit organization entirely supported by individual donors, grants, trusts, corporate donations and estate planning.

The term 'humanities' includes, but is not limited to, the study and interpretation of the following: language, both modern and classical; linguistics; literature; history; jurisprudence; philosophy; archaeology; comparative religion; ethics; the history, criticism and theory of the arts; those aspects of the social sciences which have humanistic content and employ humanistic methods; and the study and application of the humanities to the human environment with particular attention to reflecting our diverse heritage, traditions, and history and to the relevance of the humanities to the current conditions of national life.
